

Vision

MSU Gensan aims to be a highly competitive premier university committed to the development and promotion of its special areas of concern namely, Engineering, Fisheries, Agriculture, Teacher Education and selected areas in Science & Technology while maintaining its traditional programs to improve the quality of life of the people in its service area; and

Mission

MSU Gensan shall provide its serviced communities the trained human resources required for the development of SOCKSARGEN and Southern Mindanao, and help hasten the upliftment of the living conditions of the Muslims and Indigenous Peoples.

Goals and Objectives

1. Strengthen and pursue vigorously the instruction and training for technical skills in the thrust areas of agriculture, fisheries, engineering, science & technology and allied fields;
2. Develop competent middle and high level professionals to man and manage the growing number of industries, governing agencies and private enterprises;
3. Utilize research and extension community services in the development, promotion and utilization of appropriate and useful technologies in agriculture, fisheries and other allied fields/sciences;
4. Provide demand driven and local needs centered extension community/services for individual and collective economic capability building;
5. Provide and develop judicious utilization and protection of the environment within the context of sustainable development;
6. Work for the upliftment of the educationally disadvantaged cultural communities and other marginalized sectors of the society to hasten their holistic development;
7. Promote peace and development.